

Do not weaken Wisconsin's No Call law. I think any benefits to business by weakening the law will be offset by people like myself who will simply disconnect our land line phones and go solely to cell phone use, which does not so far allow such intrusion into our lives.